

DECLARATION OF BRIAN DAVID HILL ABOUT STATE POLICE VISIT ON MARCH 9, 2023

Saturday, March 18, 2023 12 AM

I am Brian David Hill.

On March 9, 2023, my mother Roberta Hill came downstairs to Apartment 2, and spoke with me that two State Police showed up about her emails to them.

I came up and they introduced themselves and showed me their badges. One of them said he was Special Agent Doug Hubert and Special Agent Chris Bocock. It was Special Agent Chris Bocock who sat at the end of the table. I sat in my special computer chair which is up in the dining room area in Apartment 1, Roberta Hill's apartment. I did tell the State Police Special Agents that I have autism and type one diabetes. At least I hope I did.

They told me that I am not a suspect. They wanted to speak with me about the various emails sent from rbhill67@comcast.net with evidence and a letter to the State Police in each one asking for an investigation into crimes.

Notes: Three or four emails to State Police are in file, and them showing up indicated that they may at least have an interest in the evidence of criminal activities such as unlawful destruction of police body-camera footage by Glen Andrew Hall, the threatening email Roberta Hill received, police misconduct evidence, and reporting a crime of false information in a police report.

They said that they wanted to hear from me and talk about the evidence I had sent through emails, and I explained to them that my mother was doing it on my behalf, corrected them on it. They said that they may investigate it, they may not, it depends on what their boss (or higher up) says.

One of them said that they wanted to do a wellness check and it took them about an hour to come by the house, to speak with me.

I told them about that I just wanted to do my duty and report the evidence of crimes, and did what I thought was the right thing. I said all I wanted to justice and an investigation into what is going on.

They asked about different things. They didn't have a body-camera on them but they may have recorded secretly or may not have recorded at all. I must make note of everything I feel must be noted.

They said they did try to trace the threatening email and it went to a server in Germany, and the officer said that is where their jurisdiction ends. I think that was Special Agent Chris Bocock.

So they couldn't find out where it was sent. I didn't like hearing that but it is the way it is. It is probably another tormail.org threatening message. The Special Agent/officer explained to me that these threat emails can come from a public wifi or even from your house and so they didn't expect to find who sent it. That is scary that they cannot trace a tormail message, where anybody can email things including child porn like what happened to Luke Rudkowski and the tormail.org message from a fake Jeff Lewis I had received in 2012 or 2013.

Anyways, they also said they may talk with Judge Greer or they may not. They may investigate, they may not. Would not give a solid answer. They said that it is all me who directs where this thing will go. They did say not to send anymore emails and directed Roberta Hill not to send anymore emails at the time. It makes sense as they need to make heads or tails if there is any investigation. I told them that I would not have anything more sent to them because I already sent them all of the evidence through my mother Roberta Hill, I already tried to get them all of the evidence and do my duty as a citizen of Virginia.

They were polite and respectful and I was the same. My mother was the same.

Then as we were talking they said that my U.S. Probation Officer Jason McMurray would call them to see if I was a suspect nor anything like that, as it triggered a flag in the system that anytime a law enforcement thing comes up regarding my name, it would alert the federal probation officer. Then a phone call came into his cell phone, and he said: "It is probably him right now", and I heard Jason's voice, not loud though, but on the cell phone. He told him that he would call him back after they were done speaking with Brian, and said that Brian is not a suspect and he is not under investigation. Then hanged up.

At one point they talked with me about the stigmatization I face because of being on the sex registry for something, and I told him that it was downloading for 11 months after the computer was taken according to the State Bureau of Investigation in North Carolina. My mother interjected that I was set up because I went after some powerful people back then and that was what had caused that.

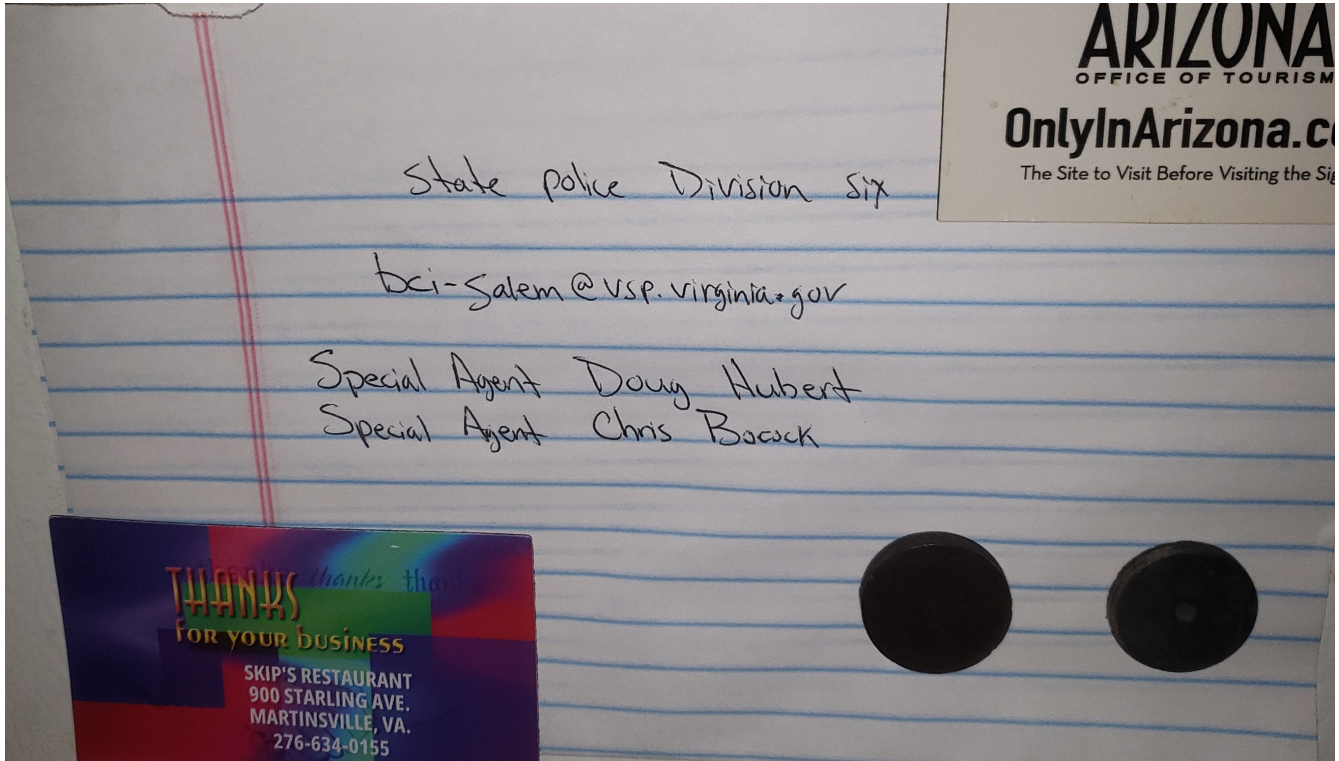

He said that he was in murder cases and it came times when he knew who did it and had evidence, but the Commonwealth's Attorney refused to prosecute and said there wasn't enough evidence, and talked about how frustrated he was about that. So he talked about how frustrated the court had made him at times. Talked about that is how it is.

Then we talked about if the possibility arises about the state probation for the contempt of court charge and things like that as my lawyer had suggested. Talked about that type of stuff. Like my OCD affecting any drug testing and the federal probation suspended the drug testing because of my OCD and having no drug history. He was talking about how he had to go through random drug testing and joked around about wearing his hat when he went in and another time he was drug tested he had to put his weapon and belt in the vehicle and felt uncomfortable walking in without his weapon.

Then they said that they would call me next week after the hearing on Friday and see if we should meet again to see how things were going.

Special Agent Chris Bock had written things down on a piece of paper and put down an email address. So they did indicate if contact is necessary to contact that email. I took a photo of this note and will put that in this Declaration.

They said they would call me next week. It is now Saturday, March 18, 2023, around 12 AM, and nobody from the Virginia State Police has called me and nobody has called my mother, as far as we are aware.

After they left, my mother did say that when the State Police showed up she was mowing, and when they walked up to her, they showed their badges.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing was true and correct.

Executed on March 18, 2023.
