Since Petitioner is proceeding pro se without representation of counsel and under Supervised Release conditions not allowing Petitioner to use the internet, email service cannot possibly be made on the Respondents. Disclaimer: The only reason Petitioner types up JusticeforUSWGO.wordpress.com is to promote a political website that his friends/family operate to ask for justice for Brian D. Hill, the former alternative news reporter of USWGO Alternative News, and does not mean any access to the internet was used to type up that address in any brief or letter or pleading. Petitioner does not have access to email and cannot email any of the Respondents in this case.

Service of process was done by mailing.

Since three respondents 1-3 are Assistant U. S. Attorneys', for the Middle District of North Carolina, a single mailing envelope containing three copies of the PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI shall serve the three Respondents at the same address and the certified mail tracking number was 7019-2280-0000-8211-5154. Proof of certified mail receipt attached.

The Solicitor General was served one (1) copy by a mailing under certified mail tracking number 7019-2280-0000-8211-5161. Proof of certified mail receipt attached.

That should serve all known Respondents and satisfy the service requirement by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Declaration pursuant to 28 U.S. Code § 1746.

<EVIDENCE ATTACHED TO THIS AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE>

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
