Rob Dew,

This should be easier for the Infowars staff to look through. A link to the article at my original blog with the brief that Brian had mailed to the U.S. Court of Appeals in regards to fraud upon the court by the prosecutor who convicted Brian and Brian's actual innocence. It almost happened to Alex Jones by some freak who sent some kind of tormal type messages and tried to frame qanon, it happened to Brian D. Hill. Both are innocent Rob and Brian can prove it. If the U.S. Court of Appeals upholds this appeal 20-6034 and remands the decision back to the lower court, then Brian shall have proved to you and the Infowars crew that the Government has fucked up as you had told him over the phone. Then you or Paul J. Watson can write an article. It is up to either the Court of Appeals or the U.S. Supreme Court. Brian has a cell phone again and will text you. He will prove to you that the Government had defrauded the Court and that he is innocent of his original charge. Then well you know, it is on public record already that Alex Jones also almost got set up with child porn but Alex wasn't interrogated by Mayodan Police around lunch time when Brian of USWGO Alternative News (a Diabetic!) was and his mother would have been held responsible if Brian "didn't fess up". People with Autism can give false confessions, especially when threatened to "Fess Up" by corrupt police calling him a Sovereign Citizen. One police officer in Virginia told Brian that for supporting Infowars or even mentioning it, that he was a sovereign citizen for that.

So Brian's appeal succeeding in his 2255 case shall be the credible evidence you need that Brian is innocent and that the Government fucked up in wrongfully prosecuting this innocent man. Then you will be able to write an article or have anybody at Infowars do that. Owen Shroyer would even be all for that as he let Brian call into his show three times a few years ago talking about his FOIA lawsuit in regards to his criminal case.

The link to the appeal brief emailed to Laurie Azgard by Brian's family was posted there. Infowars will have the proof of Brian's claims that will be vetted by the higher courts in regards to Brian's actual innocence and the Feds FRAUD.

God bless you Rob Dew and the folks at Infowars,
Stanley Bolten
