LAWYER'S ACTIONS COMPLAINED OF (continued)

He knew that Brian David Hill was not truly medically and psychologically cleared. He knew blood evidence was spoliated, never pursued retention of blood vials and never asked for any drug tests while fraudulently asserting Officer Robert Jone's criminal complaint claim under affidavit that Brian David Hill was medically and psychologically cleared at the time of Brian's arrest. That was not true.

This attorney violated Va. R. Sup. Ct. 3.8. Rule 3.8 - Additional Responsibilities Of A Prosecutor.

He was sent multiple letters directed to Police Chief G. E. Cassady which was forwarded to the Commonwealth Attorney which was Glen Andrew Hall. Brian asked multiple times in writing for the police-body-camera footage not knowing himself that the General District Court had entered an order for discovery of Brady materials. Circuit Court entered two separate orders for discovery of Brady materials. Order indicated enough details which encompassed the police body-camera footage and Brian the defendant knew that body-camera footage existed because of seeing a red light come on Office Jone's uniform.

Brian kept asking for body-camera footage in writing, not knowing of the order from the General District Court, not knowing that the Circuit Court entered two orders for Brady materials to be turned over to defense counsel, at that time was Attorney Scott Albrecht.

Brian Hill found out in 2019 from Attorney Matthew Scott Thomas Clark that the body-camera footage was destroyed and he was okay with it because it could have hurt Brian's case theoretically. However, evidence surfaced in 2019 that the hospital deleted laboratory tests previously ordered from the chart which may be an illegal cover up, maybe at the direction of who Glen Andrew Hall represents, which would be Martinsville Police Department. The body-camera footage had been destroyed despite Brian's multiple letters asking for the footage. Brian's grandparents Stella and Kenneth Forinash mailed a certified mailing through USPS letter with Brian's request for body-camera footage. Those letters were ignored and the body-camera footage was reportedly destroyed by Martinsville Police due to statements given by Matthew Scott Thomas Clark, Brian's defense lawyer.

It is believed that the police body-camera footage would not have harmed Brian's case or harmed his defense. If it was harmful to Brian's innocence, then they never would have destroyed the police body-camera footage, they would have proudly used this footage against him as further evidence of alleged guilt. That is not the case. When evidence is destroyed knowingly by the prosecutor or whose who the prosecution represents which would be Martinsville Police Department, the prosecutor had violated three court orders. It is CONTEMPT OF COURT. It is unlawful to knowingly violate a court order, even if a court order is legally invalid because that is why we have Courts of Appeals, to challenge a invalid court order by direct appeal, interlocutory appeal, or Writ of Mandamus or Prohibition. Glen Andrew Hall knowingly violated three court orders for discovery evidence. He covered up biological evidence of blood obtained by Brian's arm after being detained for the charge of indecent exposure, was taken to the police with the police, the police were with Brian at the hospital. Blood vials were drawn, lab tests ordered, then later deleted from the chart.

Glen Andrew Hall knowingly allowed and permitted biological evidence to be destroyed by Sovah Health Martinsville hospital where police were present with Brian David Hill at the hospital. Glen Andrew Hall knowingly allowed and permitted body-camera footage to be destroyed knowing that it would prove Brian David Hill was not medically right in the head, his face and behavior would have shown something was wrong with Brian Hill at the time of detainment of suspect. He permitted evidence destruction after Scott Albrecht asked the Court for discovery materials, the Court entered a order for the discovery materials. Andrew Hall refused to follow those court orders, got away with it.
